Violent storm kills one, damages area property

On L & N trestle

Fire halts trains

Damage to the Louisville and Nashville Railroad bridge over the Bay of St. Louis, caused by a fire of undetermined origin on Thursday, has been repaired and railway traffic restored.

Initially detected by state highway patrolmen Leon Button and William Kenny, while traversing the U.S. 90 bridge north of the railway trestle, the blaze had a firm grip on the 66-year old wooden span by the time of their radioed report at 9:45 p.m.

A second alarm was turned in by Herman R. Hanks of Bay St. Louis who called the sheriff's office. Deputy Norman Vaughn promptly notified L & N officials, the Coast Guard and local civil defense personnel.

Centered about 300-400 yards from the west shore, the conflagration damaged approximately 150-feet of the two mile span before being brought under control, at about 3 a.m. Friday, by railroad trackmen, civil defense volunteers, Coast Guard units, a Gumpert fire department truck and private boats.

Railway traffic was resumed when the Hummingbird out of New Orleans crossed about 1:20 p.m. on Friday.

Several trains were delayed by the fire, and subsequent bridge repairs. The northbound

Crescent Limited was stopped at Bay St. Louis and later returned to New Orleans and the southbound Gulf Wind-Piedmont terminated in Gulfport on Friday morning and passengers were transported to New Orleans by bus.

L & N railroad officials recently announced plans to replace the wooden span built in 1899 by a $4.9 million fire-proof steel and concrete structure.

USM to open center at Picayune in fall

University of Southern Mississippi is to open a center in Picayune this fall and offer third year college courses in conjunction with first and second year courses available through Pearl River Junior College, according to Dr. Paul C. Morgan, dean of the division of continuing education at Hattiesburg.

To be located in Picayune, the center will also offer graduate work and non-credit courses. The program of the extension center will be coordinated with the curricula of Pearl River Junior College in order that overlapping of academic offerings may be avoided.

Undergraduate courses will begin at the junior year level unless the university is requested to offer courses at a lower level by the junior college in the area. Graduate courses will be offered on demand when a qualified instructor is available.

The addition of the University of Southern Mississippi's academic offerings to those of Pearl River Junior College will place individuals completing the program in a position to earn a degree by doing one additional year of work on the campus of a four year college or university.

Persons requiring further information may write the Division of Continuing Education, P.O. Box 55, Southern Station, Hattiesburg.

Manslaughter charged in girls death

Max J. Bishop of Metairie, La., faces a charge of manslaughter resulting from the death of three-year-old Sharon Lee Conroy following a traffic accident on Beach Blvd. in Waveland on Wednesday, May 19. Hearing will be in Justice of the Peace court of Nolan Ladner on Tuesday.

The child, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Conroy of New Orleans, reportedly dashed into the path of Bishop's automobile when returning from swimming with her grandmother, Mrs. Gladys Sue Stasik of 456 Beach Blvd., around 1 p.m. She was

One fatality and extensive utility and property damage were caused by a severe electrical storm which hit various areas of the county on Monday.

Rain and hail accompanied the disturbance, which lasted well into the early evening hours, ranging in amount from .44 inch at Rocky Hill fire tower, 3. inch at Lakeshore, to 1.21 inch in Bay St. Louis. Hailstones dropping from the storm's leading edge covered the Waveland area.

Kenneth Malley, 15, was struck by a bolt of lightning at about 12:30 p.m. near his home in Dedeaux community.

Industrial Electric's enameling plant on Central Ave., suffered a temporary work stoppage when lightning severed an electric supply line at St. Charles and Third Streets. Power was also disrupted for about 20-minutes when lightning struck a tree next to the house of Cal Smith on Jeff Davis Ave. A telephone line conveyed the electrical discharge into the Smith residence causing damage to the heating system, and the attic to smoke. Waveland volunteer firemen cut two holes into the ceiling to ascertain whether or not an active fire had been caused. Mrs. Smith and her two daughters, Pam 5 and Peggy 2, were in the house at the time.

Three bushels of large fresh water fish were killed in a fish pond on property owned by Mr. and Mrs. Lucien Perniciaro, while Mr. and Mrs. Fabian Buquiol, owners of Joyce's Candy Kitchen called the fire department when lightning hit a fluorescent lighting fixture causing smoke to pour from the attic.

One lineman, ascending a utility pole to repair it, hastily retreated when yet another bolt hit the same location. Other units made repairs at Lower Bay Road, View Street and on Waveland Ave.

Home Gregory of Mississippi Power Co., said the storm was the most damaging to electrical installations in his memory. Telephone repairmen agreed and reported that as of Wednesday some phones were not back in order.

Coast Electric received between 15 and 20 calls more than usual during such a storm.

Dedeaux boy struck by lightning

Kenneth Wade Malley, 15, of Dedeaux, was struck and killed by lightning about 12:30 p.m. Monday during the severe electrical storm which hit Hancock County.

Malley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Malley, and a 10th grade student at Hancock North Central School, was heading for shelter from the oncoming storm, after picking blackberries with two companions, Paul Ladner, 14, and Randall Ladner, 16, in the rear of property owned by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ladner at Dedeaux. Paul, walking behind Malley, suffered a burned right forearm and was taken to Hancock General Hospital for treatment. Randall, approximately 10 to 15 feet behind the others, was unharmed.

A jury, empaneled by Justice of the Peace Frank Selph, acting coroner with Deputy Sheriff Marvin Bobinger as bailiff and Arthur Neadale, Clois Neadale, Lavella Neadale, Ulna Ladner, Thomas Ladner and Ramsey Cameron rules that death was accidental and caused by lightning.

Funeral services for Kenneth began with prayers at his home at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday followed by religious rites at Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Dedeaux. Burial was in Standard Sand Hill Cemetery.

In addition to his parents he is survived by three sisters, Mrs. J. Woodcock of Gulfport and Valerie and Laura Lee Malley of Dedeaux and three brothers, Harvey, Jr., and Jerry Lionel of Dedeaux and Phillip Wayne of Pass Christian.

Music group elects prexy

The Bay St. Louis Music Appreciation League, under the direction of Rev. Michael J. Kelly, held its first meeting Sunday, June 6, in Our Lady of the Gulf School cafeteria.

Sponsored by the CYO, the league was established to promote interest in classical and semi-classical music and is open to members of all churches. Lorraine de Montez was elected president, and Al Thompson, secretary-treasurer.

Meetings will be held every other Sunday at 4 p.m. in the OLG parish hall.

One of our most able helpers, Mr. John McClosky, who possesses a wealth of information of just about any subject, came in the office last week to comment on our hit about sting ray wounds being a rather rare occurrence and pointed out that just plain, harmless appearing car fish have been known to inflict much more difficult to treat injuries. So it might be well to warn those who have never fished in these parts before that the top fin on salt water car fish is really an acid impregnated barb. . . if you happen to catch one be sure you have pliers or similar equipment handy when removing the hook from his mouth. If all precautions fail seek medical aid as soon as possible as infection is almost always the inevitable result of this type of wound.

Mr. McClosky also brought along a book of safety rules regarding the use of power mowers, which cause an alarming number of summertime mishaps. They are all most helpful, and we'll gladly pass the entire list along to anyone who is interested, but most urgent is the warning to keep children and pets are well out of range when cutting grass. Any object caught in the whirling blades is ejected with the speed of a bullet, can travel almost as far as a projectile from a small calibre pistol.

Cakes, diamonds and food

Seems as if just about everybody we know is either going to or has just celebrated a birthday. Rose and Hazel Rutherford cut cakes on May 28, and May 30, in that order. City Father Cyril Glover is proudly displaying a very fancy battery-operated cigarette lighter he received on his 39th (again) on Friday. Newly wed Ann (Mrs. Chris) Bell observed hers on the same date in her new Huntsville, Ala. home. Dick Kolstad (he's 39 again, too), celebrated on Wednesday, little Mary Debenport was 12 on Monday, and Lou (Mrs. John) Wilkerson and John Rutherford will cut cakes on June 11.

Doris and Jack Souzeau observed their 24th wedding anniversary by taking a long weekend trip to Destin, Fla. They left late Thursday, May 29, and returned the following Monday. Jack's gift to Doris was a beautiful diamond and platinum medal on a dainty chain.

Phyl and Jimmy Lagasse took a trip the same weekend. They stayed at Longfellow House in Pascagoula and had a wonderful time enjoying the fabulous food. . . Phyl said the biggest treat was having breakfast in bed.

Maxie scores again. . . Maxie Treilles came home with the blue ribbon for best dog in show when he returned from Tennessee last week.

Ever travelling Charlie Ferry stayed in the very plush Hilton Inn on his most recent journey to New York City. Eddie Engelhorn is driving around in a 'new' pale green compact car. It's lovely and all that, but just lacks old Silver Bell's Bermuda type horn!

Hurry home - we miss you

Again get well wishes are plentiful. Milton Cormier spent several days in Hancock General recuperating from pneumonia. Audrey Hoelzel is still hospitalized following major surgery, but is feeling better. Beulah (Mrs. Tony) Benigno was taken to Hancock General Thursday afternoon after suddenly becoming quite ill while at work; she was at least strong enough to eat the soft diet type meal offered her Friday afternoon.

Our local golfers Iva May (Mrs. John) McDonald and Joan (Mrs. Powell, Jr.) Glass emerged from State Championship competition taking both of their consolation matches on Saturday. Iva May 7-5 and Joan 2-1.

'Mamma Gee' Gianelloni has returned to her home in Baton Rouge after spending several weeks visiting son Max, wife Mamie and Teemy and Jeanine. Incidentally Mamie is now a full time employee at MTF.

We don't really know just how new Marie Quintini's car is. . . but we saw it for the first time Saturday and it's a beautiful shade of pale green.

We want to congratulate our lucky neighbor Mrs. J.R. Michael on winning the $100. in Jimmy Jungle's anniversary celebration.

Sympathy is extended to Meadow Lane summer home owner Victor Mahne, Jr. (he's Tina (Mrs. Harold) Eck's brother-in-law) on the sudden death of his father Capt. Victor Mahne of the New Orleans Fire Department who passed away on Thursday.

A really warm welcome 'home' is on the way to Marie and Hap Carter and three children. Marie and Hap were here a couple of years ago when transferred to California and are overjoyed over their return to Waveland. They're making their home on Terrace Avenue.

DENTAL SURGEON -

Anthony Joseph Tridico, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Joseph Tridico of New Orleans, and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. A.J. Pilet of Waveland, received his degree of Doctor of Dental Surgery from Loyola University in New Orleans last Tuesday. Dr. Tridico received his Bachelor of Science degree from Louisiana State University in 1961.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Guber, formerly of Houston, Tex., are new Clemons Harbor residents living on Forrest Avenue.

Speaking of Clemons Harbor, we must comment on the results of Ruth (Mrs. Al) Landry's diet. She's lost 50 pounds and looks like a movie star.

BAWI: Yesterday's Dream Becomes Today's Reality

An industrial miracle has been performed. Forty years ago, when Mississippi Power Company began operating, the state's economy was overwhelmingly agricultural with 80 percent of her people employed in farming pursuits or industries closely related with it.

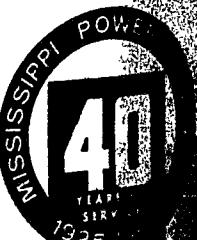

This year, for the first time in Mississippi's history, the number of people employed in industry exceeds the number employed in agriculture. The state's Balance Agriculture With Industry dream of 1936, established by Governor Hugh White and carried forward today by Governor Paul Johnson, has become a reality.

Essential in the transformation has been abundant, low-cost electric power. Our company is proud to have shared in this diversified industrial progress both as a supplier of electricity and as a salesman for our state through the efforts of our Industrial Development department.

The future holds the promise of even greater things to come. And the enterprise, resourcefulness and initiative of the people of Mississippi will continue to make our present-day dreams tomorrow's realities.

Electric lead women's league

Wood led La's in the hitting department lining a two run homer in the first frame and cutting in three other runs in the second inning with a stand-up triple.

On the other side of the score sheet, CVO's hits came from Mimi Monti with two singles, Cathy Everett with a two sacchar, and Sh. Monti and Margaret McDorville both with singles.

Vivian Schaffer chalked up her second hill victory while Debbie Weidman suffered the loss.

Beach Drug's win put them even 1-1 in league standings. Eva Beaugez turned the best hitting per centage with two for three trips to the plate.

Moran's runs came in the first inning, when Cheryl Moran scored on a single and Brenda Hudson rounded the bags after drawing a base on balls.

Their other run was added in the fifth when Cynthia Krankey came home on a series of Beach Drug errors.

In the opening contest of the season, La's staged a last inning rally to ease by Beach Drug 7-6 and Morans stopped CVO 9-3 in the night-cap.

Hays will entertain at dinner Sunday honoring newcomers Mr. and Mrs. Charles Uram and three children, formerly of Cheyenne, Wyo., who now live at 115 Leopold Street.

A fish fry to be held at Our Lady of the Gulf Cafeteria on June 18, will be the first event of the annual church fair on June 19 and 20.

Bob Geiger has asked us to pass on the word that mode of dress for his current art showing of Sea and Ships is most informal. . . anything from a fig leaf or bikini to shorts will be acceptable. Of course those in dresses won't be turned away, but he wants all guests to be comfortable.

Apologies to Gladys Noonan, Thelma Dickson and Peggy Hopking as we omitted their names from our list of Seaside Ceramics students.

River party

Irene (Mrs. Ben) Hille was a gracious hostess when she entertained Bay-Waveland Garden Club members at a party at the Hille's Jordan River camp on Thursday. Guests swam, fished and enjoyed refreshments from the bountiful laden tables.

Caroline and Bill Argus fired a group of friends at a formal dinner party at their home Saturday night.

Pat and Joe Vignerie followed up with a milk punch breakfast for the same group the following morning.

Elmira (Mrs. Bob) Whitson has been somewhat under the weather for the past few days.

Frequent Waveland visitor Rosemarie Di Venenti, (she's Sara Macaluso Thornton's granddaughter), was wed in the Crescent City on Saturday, May 22, in an impressive ceremony. We unfortunately misplaced the clipping that listed her new husband's name and other details, but do know that the honeymooners were to visit Mrs. Thornton last Thursday on their return from Florida.

Norma and John Daughner returned home Sunday after vacationing in St. Louis, Mo.

Gripe corner

Rat Fink of the week is the person or persons who swiped Capt. and Mrs. William Johns' brand new garbage can early Monday. The Johns had a similar experience a couple of years ago and had since initialed new cans, but as this one was just acquired they hadn't gotten around to it. So Mrs. Johns asked us to suggest that putting large letters on cans might deter further thefts.

Lt. and Mrs. James E. Duffy (she's the former Judy Heitzmann, Jess and Buster's oldest daughter) have been transferred to Fort Worth, Tex., for a year in the Texas A&M system where they have lived for the past three years. They have just moved into a brand new home in Fort Worth.

NOTICE - All Kappa Kappa Gamma alumni in the area are asked to contact sorority sisters Virginia (Mrs. Fred) Wegner or Iva May (Mrs. John) McQuaid as soon as possible.

The reason being that a barbecue and swimming party to be held at Iva May's beach home for all KKG's is in the planning stage and they're eager to discover how many of this group have moved into the coast area.

Lucille and Ed Fayard are due congratulations having celebrated their 36th wedding anniversary on Monday.

Jean and Johnny Longo welcomed their third daughter, Christine Elizabeth, born last Jan. 14 in Gulfport Memorial. The event the Longo family is most grateful for, as they also have three sons.

SIGHTS AND SOUNDS ALONG THE WAY - Two small boys rolling on enormous black inner tube beachwear; a relatively rare Japanese car with jet yellow blossoms in a beach front yard; dirty, bare and obviously happy little feet and the sound of their pitter patter on the sidewalk.
